

The Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs (JINSA) cordially invites you to attend a New York/Long Island Cabinet luncheon with

Congressman Mike Pence (R-IN)

Tuesday, April 12, 2011
12:30 – 2:00pm
Harmonie Club
4 East 60th Street
New York, NY 10022

Congressman Mike Pence serves on the Committee on Foreign Affairs where he is the Vice-Chairman on the Subcommittee on the Middle East and South Asia. He also serves on the Committee of the Judiciary where he acts as the Vice-Chairman of the Subcommittee on the Constitution and is also a member of the Subcommittee on Intellectual Property, Competition, and the Internet.

Pence was first elected to Congress in 2000 and was most recently elected to a sixth term in November of 2010. He also was elected unanimously by House Republicans to serve as House Republican Conference Chairman in November 2008.

Prior to being elected to Congress, Pence was president of the conservative Indiana Policy Review Foundation and hosted “The Mike Pence Show,” a syndicated radio show throughout the state of Indiana.

In November 2007, Congressman Pence was named one of the top 20 most influential conservatives in America, coming in at nineteen according to the London Daily Telegraph. In 2010, The Hill, a Washington newspaper that covers Congress, named Congressman Pence one of the 25 hardest working lawmakers in Washington.

Pence is a lifelong Hoosier and national advocate for limited government, fiscal discipline, a strong national defense, and traditional moral values.

This program is open to members of the JINSA New York & Long Island Cabinets. RSVP is required. Please contact Yola Johnston at yjohnston@jinsa.org or (202) 667-3900.

The JINSA Cabinets were formed to explore issues affecting both American and Israeli security. Cabinet members are invited to briefings on security and defense issues four to six times a year. To become a member, please contact Yola Johnston, JINSA's Director for Foundations & Community Outreach or Michael Salzhauer, Chairman of JINSA's NY Cabinet or Larry Siedlick, Chairman of JINSA's Long Island Cabinet.
