

	Date	Location	Nature of Incident	Reported/Estimated Civilian Casualties
1.	April 5, 1999	Missile Attack on Aleksinac, Serbia	NATO attack on a barracks on the town of Aleksinac resulted in missiles striking a residential area hitting apartments, an "emergency centre" and a medical dispensary.	10 dead and at least another 30 injured
2	April 12, 1999	Grdelica Gorge, Serbia	NATO's attack on a railway bridge hit a passenger train.	14 killed and 16 injured
3	April 14, 1999	Road between _akovica - De_ani	NATO aircraft repeatedly bombed refugee movements over 19 km stretch in western Kosovo,	73 deaths and 36 injured
4	April 23, 1999	Belgrade	The NATO attacked on the Serb Radio and Television Headquarters in Belgrade.	16 civilian technicians killed and 16 injured
5	April 27, 1999	Missile Attack on Surdulica, Serbia	NATO attack on residential area in the southern town of Surdulica.	16 civilians killed
6	May 1, 1999	Attack on a civilian bus on Lu_ane Bridge, North of Pri_tina	A NATO missile aimed at the Lu_ane bridge, 20km (12 miles) north of Pri_tina, hit a passenger bus cutting it in two - one section plunging off the bridge into the river below, the other left burning on the bridge for more than an hour. An ambulance sent to the scene was reportedly hit in a second NATO strike.	39 people were killed
7	May 7, 1999	Cluster bombing of Ni_	NATO confirmed that a cluster bomb aimed at an airfield in the Yugoslav city of Ni_ hit a hospital and a market. Unexploded cluster bomblets were left strewn about the surround residential areas.	14 civilians killed, about 60 injured
8	May 7, 1999	Missile Attack on Chinese Embassy in Belgrade	The U.S. admitted that an out-of-date map used by its intelligence operations had led NATO to mistakenly launch missiles at the Chinese Embassy.	3 dead, 20 injured
9	May 14, 1999	NATO bombing of Albanian refugees near Kori_a, Kosovo	NATO planes attacked Albanian refugees near Korisa striking two convoys of ethnic Albanians trying to flee Kosovo,	More than 100 killed
10	May 19, 1999	Belgrade hospital struck	A NATO bombing attack on the Dragi_a Mi_ovi_ hospital in Belgrade. Parts of the hospital were reduced to rubble. NATO admitted a missile aimed at a nearby Serb army barracks went astray.	4 killed, several injured
11	May 30, 1999	Bombing of Varvarin, Southeast Serbia	NATO bombers mounted a daylight raid on a bridge in Varvarin when local residents were attending the town's market on the bridge. The ancient and narrow bridge was considered insignificant and no military installations were to be found within a radius of 20 km. Most of	11 civilians were reported killed and 40 injured, 17 seriously to be found within a radius of 20 km. Most of the casualties occurred in the second wave of the attack, when people had rushed to the bridge to help those wounded in the initial attack.

12	May 30, 1999	Missile Attack on old age sanitarium in Surdulica, Serbia	NATO planes hit an old age sanitarium in Surdulica in south-eastern Serbia, the second time civilian targets were hit in the town in just over a month.	At least 11 people killed
13	May 31, 1999	Novi Pazar, southwest Serbia.	A NATO missile attack on an apartment building in Novi Pazar, southwest Serbia.	10 people killed and 20 injured